

British racing driver, Motivational Speaker & Author

Nicolas Hamilton

Nicolas Hamilton is a British racing driver and remarkable motivational speaker. As the half-brother of seven-time Formula 1 world champion Lewis Hamilton, he has made his own name in motorsport despite his particular challenges. Born with Cerebral Palsy, which affects the mobility of his leg muscles, doctors predicted that he would never be able to walk - but against all predictions, through years of intensive training, he managed to walk unaided at the age of 17. This was just the first step on his unwavering path to realizing his dream: To become a racing driver. With his genuine, down-to-earth and...
