

Director, Author, Presenter & Producer - Expert in Healthcare & Longevity

Tim Schreder

Tim Schreder is a director, writer, presenter and producer – and one of the most recognisable faces on young, modern German television. Born in Düsseldorf, he started working for ZDF at the age of 19, presenting the children's news programme logo! and reporting from all over the world – including a report on the refugee crisis that was nominated for the Grimme Prize. From 2018 to 2024, he presented the morning show Live nach Neun on ARD. At the same time, he built up his production company erzaehlfabrik, founded in 2016, with which he now produces award-winning documentaries and reports...
