Expert for Growth, Innovation, Value & Transformation

Peter Sheahan

Peter Sheahan is an internationally recognized speaker and thought leader in business innovation, growth and transformation. With decades of experience alongside leaders of high-performing organizations, Peter Sheahan has gained a profound insight: an organization can only grow commercially when its leaders are willing to lead the way personally. Peter Sheahan has proven that true growth comes from continuous development. Working with clients like Apple, Chick-fil-A, DeBeers, and AT&T, he has built his own companies by accelerating change and driving innovation. His message is clear: “Thinking bigger begins with being better. When leaders stay true to their purpose, they not only…
