

Ex-Stuntwoman, Expert for Resilience, Courage & Change

Miriam Höller

Miriam Höller, former stuntwoman and award-winning female speaker, inspires with her extraordinary life story and remarkable resilience. Miriam Höller gained fame through her participation in "Germany's Next Topmodel" and as a presenter on "GRIP – Das Motormagazin." For over a decade, she lived her dream as a professional stuntwoman, captivating audiences with her aesthetic stunt performances. In 2016, a severe accident changed her life: after an injury that ended her career as a stuntwoman, she lost her partner, aerobatic world champion Hannes Arch, in a helicopter crash just six weeks later. Despite these devastating blows, she fought her way back...
