Event host

Tobias Witton

Tobias Witton is a presenter with heart and soul – a bridge builder between stage and audience, between information and entertainment. With a keen instinct, wit and quick wit, he succeeds in making events of all kinds lively and sustainable. Whether at a trade fair, sporting event or panel talk – Tobias always strikes the right note and creates space for genuine encounters. His passion for language and education has accompanied him since his time as a secondary school teacher. Today, he brings this same energy to the stage – professionally, charmingly and with a real feel for people. Tobias…
