

Netflix Co-Founder, Serial Entrepreneur & Innovation Expert

Marc Randolph

Marc Randolph is an experienced entrepreneur, advisor, and investor from Silicon Valley. As co-founder and first CEO of Netflix, Marc Randolph laid the foundation for a service that has grown to over 275 million subscribers and fundamentally changed the way the world experiences media. With his entrepreneurial instinct and a clear eye for cutting-edge technologies, he has repeatedly proven that courage and innovation are the keys to success. Before Netflix became a global streaming platform, Marc Randolph faced countless challenges – his motto: “That will never work” is not the end, but the beginning of creative solutions. Marc’s career as...
