

former Bobsledder Team Jamaica

Devon Harris

From the sun-baked streets of Kingston, Jamaica, to the freezing tracks of four Winter Olympics, Devon Harris's extraordinary journey embodies the power of perseverance and unwavering determination. As a founding member of the legendary Jamaican Bobsled Team, Devon didn't just inspire the beloved Disney classic "Cool Runnings" – he redefined what's possible when you dare to dream beyond boundaries. A graduate of the prestigious Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, Devon Harris combines the mental fortitude of an elite military officer with the resilience of an Olympic athlete. His remarkable transformation from a young man in Kingston's tough inner city to an...
