Sebastian Kister

Sebastian Kister — sovereignty architect, cloud pioneer, People-First Transformation thought leader The three hottest topics in the world are one topic for Sebastian Kister. Agentic AI, digital sovereignty, and what both do to people — most stages carry one of them. For him it is the same question asked from three directions: who decides? Agentic AI does not change which software a company runs, but who decides inside it. A prompt becomes an organisation: agents spawn agents, delegate, act. Outsource that layer and you have outsourced decision-making, not compute. Kister is among the very few who have not described that…
