

Presenter for events, galas, conferences and congresses

Neda Peemüller

Neda Peemüller is a versatile event presenter for galas, conferences and congresses – professional, approachable and audience-focused. With several years of experience as a live presenter on ProSieben's 'taff' and a background in journalism gained through her traineeship and work as an editor, Neda Peemüller has established herself as a confident and versatile presenter. Her path led her into the media world at an early age, where she started behind the scenes, developed step by step and finally made her mark live on camera. This combination of editorial depth and on-air experience continues to shape her professional yet authentic presenting...
