

Expert in AI in Leadership, HR & Organizations

Oliver Winter

Oliver Winter is a speaker on responsible leadership in the age of AI. When organizations talk about artificial intelligence, the conversation often turns immediately to tools. Oliver Winter starts earlier: with responsibility, leadership, and clear decision-making. His goal is to empower leadership and HR to manage AI responsibly—without hype, but with impact. He brings over 20 years of experience in leadership, communication, and change management. Since 2024, his focus has been on AI in the workplace. As a TÜV-certified AI trainer and co-founder of wb ONE, he combines years of leadership experience with a structured approach and translates AI into…
