

Expert on AI in Leadership & HR

Oliver Winter

Oliver Winter is a speaker on responsible leadership in the age of AI. When organisations talk about artificial intelligence, the conversation often turns immediately to tools. Oliver Winter starts earlier: with responsibility, leadership and clear decision-making. His aim is to empower leadership and HR to manage AI responsibly – without the hype, but with real impact. He brings over 20 years of experience in leadership, communication and change management. Since 2024, his focus has been on AI in the workplace. As a TÜV-certified AI trainer and co-founder of wb ONE, he combines psychological depth with a structured approach and translates...
