

Fmr. Soccer player & Captain, TV Analyst & Entrepreneur

Viktoria Schnaderbeck

Viktoria Schnaderbeck is one of the most influential figures in Austrian sports. As the long-time captain of the Austrian women's national team, she led her squad to a sensational third-place finish at the 2017 European Championship, a historic achievement that permanently transformed women's soccer in Austria. Her career embodies leadership, mental strength, team culture, and the courage to break new ground. She has experienced success at the highest level, but also setbacks, injuries, and fresh starts. It is precisely this combination that makes her talks particularly impactful: Viktoria Schnaderbeck speaks about leadership, resilience, and change not from a theoretical perspective,...
