

Keynote Speaker on Decision Quality - Big-Wave Surfer

Alex Wippel

Alex Wippel: "I am an ordinary person having an extraordinary passion. I surf the world's biggest waves." Alex Wippel works with leadership teams on the quality of their decisions, above all where information is incomplete, time is short and mistakes are hard to correct. He combines his experience as a big wave surfer with more than 20 years of practice in leadership development. As a professional, Alex Wippel has surfed the biggest waves in the world, including Jaws on Maui and Nazaré in Portugal, where water walls of up to 30 meters roll toward the coast. He was the first...
