

Expert Service Excellence & Customer success

Sabine Hübner

If you want to improve service, you have to inspire people – and Sabine Hübner is a master at doing just that. She is passionate about dedicated staff and enthusiastic customers. She puts into practice what she preaches on stage: through her consultancy firm forwardservice, she helps companies strengthen their customer focus and embed a deep-rooted service mindset at every level. Her talks are a skilful blend of professional expertise, memorable examples and plenty of humour. They strike a chord with her audience, create a sense of optimism and inspire enthusiasm for new perspectives and a sustainable service culture, both...
