

Economist, Expert in Finance and Economy

Jürgen Stark

Dr. Jürgen Stark is regarded as a monetary policy hardliner who, as Chief Economist of the European Central Bank, is vehemently committed to the stability of the euro in the debt crisis. At the end of 2011, he left the ECB in protest against the fiscal policy of the EU states in the euro crisis. After studying economics at the Universities of Hohenheim and Tübingen, Jürgen Stark (*1948) worked as a consultant in the Economic Policy Department at the German Federal Ministry of Economics. He then heads the "Foreign Trade, Money, Currency and Financial Markets" department in the Federal Chancellery...
