Didier Sornette

Didier Sornette is professor of Entrepreneurial Risks in the department of Management, Technology and Economics at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (ETH Zurich), a professor of finance at the Swiss Finance Institute, and is an associate member of the department of Physics and of the department of Earth Sciences at ETH Zurich. His topic: "How we can predict the next financial crisis!" He is the author 500+ research papers and 7 books. Much of Prof. D. Sornette's research is based on the hypothesis that most extreme risks (and gains) are "dragon-kings", that is, they almost always result from maturations...
