

Expert in understanding human nature - I know, who you are!

Tatjana Strobel

Tatjana Strobel – Expert in understanding human nature. A person who understands human nature is a better leader, more skilful negotiator and accomplished at hiring the most efficient staff. In short – people who understand how others ‘tick’ are more successful. Tatjana Strobel passes on her knowledge in tailored lectures and corporate trainings which enable executives, salespeople, recruitment specialists and entire teams to achieve a greater impact in the shortest possible time. Leadership Analysis, strategic and concept tools are important in day-to-day management – and without profound knowledge of human nature, their effect is limited. Whether we are conducting employee...
