Michael Vatikiotis

Michael Vatikiotis has over a decade of experience working as a private diplomat and conflict mediator; prior to that he worked as a journalist in Asia for thirty years, working for the BBC and then as editor of the Far Eastern Economic Review. Vatikiotis joined the Geneva-based Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue in 2005 and has worked on promoting and facilitating dialogue in armed conflict around Asia. The BBC reported that when he was brought in to negotiate between the Thai government and protesting Red Shirts in the heart of Bangkok in 2010, 'He discovered that though the rebels hadn't spoken...
