

Presenter for conferences, symposia, company anniversaries and events, Galas or political discussions

Matthias Wipf

Dr. Matthias Wipf (* 1972) has been a passionate presenter for conferences, events and political discussions for many years. After studying contemporary history, political sciences and media sciences at the Universities of Berne and Friborg and a study visit in North Carolina (USA), he wrote a much-noticed dissertation on the history of Switzerland during World War II. Thereafter, Wipf worked e.g. as a Senior Project Manager at Axel Springer Switzerland, as a presenter of a local TV station and as Head of Communications & Public Affairs at the Pro Juventute Foundation. His presentations are competent and always interspersed with a...
