Job-Tester

Jannike Stöhr

Jannike Stöhr has done what many people don’t (yet) dare to do. She quit her job as an HR manager in a corporation and instead of jumping straight into the next job or career, she decided to try out 30 different jobs to find her true calling. During her year-long experiment, she came to surprising conclusions about digitalization, careers and happiness, which she summarized in her book “The Dream Job Experiment”. In 2018, she published her second book “Das Traumjob-Experiment: Ich bin so frei”, a guide to changing careers that Jannike Stöhr developed together with Emilio Galli Zugaro. Jannike Stöhr…
