

Entrepreneur & Interim Manager

Bodo Antonic

Dr. Bodo Antonic was born as a German-Austrian-Croatian Persian into a culture of a changing perspectives. Fascinated by the unexpected discovery of the small in the big, he has been researching human nature and its free development possibilities for years. As restructuring Interim Manager, recognized speaker and advisor he made it his business to open the view far beyond the economical edge of plate.

Dr. Bodo Antonic makes a passionate plea for unleashing creativity by dismantling superfluous rules. Away with sprawling internal bureaucracy that keeps people from their core activities and the “fun of it”. Towards rules that have real relevance for employees and customers and whose number and quality are not oriented towards...
