

Digital Entrepreneur, Digital Products & Marketing Expert and Author

Jakob Hager

Jakob Hager is one of the leading online marketing and Facebook marketing experts in the German-speaking world. He demonstrates how online marketing can be used to set up companies in a short period of time and thus lives the dream of entrepreneurial independence – his companies function purely online and fully automatically. Jakob Hager lives all over the world, but especially in Dubai, San Francisco and Moscow.

Jakob Hager is an entrepreneur, digital products & marketing expert and author. He successfully runs, together with Zuzana Pilcikova, the company Mentortools, a platform for online courses and communities with over 100,000 users. The platform uses AI (artificial intelligence) to support experts in turning their knowledge into online courses and...
