

World Champion & Olympic Champion in the German Rowing Eight

Andreas Kuffner

Andreas Kuffner about setting up an (inner) high performance team, dealing with setbacks, the importance of an failure culture, daily motivation and how important it is to approach things differently and critically.

Andreas Kuffner: 16 years of high performance sports, World Champion & Olympic Gold in the German Rowing Eight and industrial engineer. For 24 years there was no Olympic gold for the German Rowing Eight. Continuing as before was therefore not an option for Andreas Kuffner and the Team Germany Eight....
