

former German Track Cyclist, Olympic Champion, World Champion

Miriam Welte

Miriam Welte is one of Germany's most successful professional track cyclists. She is an Olympic gold medallist, a six-time world champion, a four-time European champion, and a 21-time German champion. Trained by her stepfather Frank Ziegler, Miriam Welte was the runner-up in the German junior championships in the 500-metre time trial in 2002. Between 2006 and 2008, she won the German elite-level championship in this discipline every year. Coupled with this were two European championship titles: The time trial in Athens in 2006, and the keirin in Pruszków in 2008. In 2008 and 2009, she achieved multiple podiums in World...
