Founder & CEO The Plastic Bank

David Katz

David Katz is the Founder and CEO of Plastic Bank. Plastic Bank (PB) is a platform for the world to gather together to alleviate global poverty and ocean plastic through recycling. On a high level, it is a convenience store for the world's poor that accepts plastic waste as a currency. This global recycling system is sustained through the sale and use of Social Plastic® by some of the world's largest organizations. Salt Magazine's list of The World's Top 100 Compassionate Business Leaders recognized David Katz as #4 between Dr. Muhammad Yunus and Elon Musk. David Katz Speaking Topics Social…
