Erich Artner

Erich Artner: "Without legs to the Ironman – hurdles are only in the head." Erich Artner has always been an athlete. From the age of 11 to 15, he played competitive handball for West Wien. As a young man, however, he contracted Waterhouse-Friderichsen syndrome and subsequently lost both lower legs. "...The only thing that got the disease was my two lower legs. That's all I was willing to give!" His lecture topics Without legs to the Ironman – hurdles are only in the head! CHANGE and challenge (Change Management) as well as INCLUSION (Diversity Management) are the main topics in...
