Géraldine Ulrichs

Géraldine Ulrichs – Xeem: Digital Recruitment & Future of Work. Traditional application processes were yesterday. At only 24 years of age, Géraldine Ulrichs is already a company founder and managing director. Even at the age of 15 she started her own business and placed trade fair personnel for international companies or supported companies such as Honda in the design sector. Lecture topics Géraldine Ulrichs: Xeem – From Know-How to Do-How: From an Idea to Implementation. Everybody founds a company for the first time. No matter if maybe already with 15, with 30 or with 60 years. Of course, you can...
