Daniel Koch

Daniel Koch – Back to the future: When will we have overcome the Covid crisis? Daniel Koch, who studied medicine, gained Swiss notoriety in the spring of 2020 through his media presence as a federal Corona delegate. The former head of the “Communicable Diseases” department at the FOPH tells us what we can learn from the Corona crisis for the future, what is needed now to prevent the next wave and how to get the population to support necessary measures. Daniel Koch – Mr. Corona & “Swiss of the year 2020”. Presentation topics Daniel Koch Back to the future: When...
