

FIFA World Referee

Dr. Felix Brych

Felix Brych is world referee and 5x German referee of the year. In his lectures, he talks about digitalization in professional soccer and the courage to make decisions. Felix Brych is an active referee and whistles matches in the Bundesliga and Champions League. He has participated in all major international soccer tournaments. He reports from a live perspective, especially against the background of the introduction of VAR and thus the transition of soccer into the digital age. In this context, Felix Brych also addresses psychological aspects in the preparation of decisions or the entire match management. His understanding of business...
