

Pilot, ESA Reserve Astronaut, Aerospace Engineer

Nicola Winter

Nicola Winter (*1985) could be the first German woman in space. She is a pilot, speaker, ESA reserve astronaut, aerospace engineer and specialist in leadership and crisis management. Nicola Winter was a fighter pilot in the German Armed Forces for over a decade, was one of only three women in the air force to pilot the Eurofighter, trained young pilots in the USA for several years and most recently held the rank of Major. In 2017, the Boston Consulting Group and Handelsblatt named Nicola Winter "Thought Leader of the Year". Her credo: with courage, empathy, discipline, passion and a little...
