

Expert for Change, Transformation & Leadership

Friska Wirya

Friska Wirya is a Leader of Change. She has partnered with some of the most complex organisations in the world to adopt and sustain change. She brings digital transformation to life by accelerating adoption and building proficiency at scale, having worked for some of the biggest names in mining, engineering and technology. A change and transformation expert for nearly a decade, she's led change programs influencing up to 23,000 people across 6 of the seven continents. From the red-hot dirt of the Pilbara, the sensory overload of Mumbai, to the deep forests of remote Indonesia, Friska has experience driving behaviour...
