

Founder & CEO Think Tank Themis Foresight, Futurist

Jan Berger

Jan Berger is the Founder and CEO of the Think Tank Themis Foresight. His keynotes deal with the interplay between business, technology, society and politics. Unlike other futurists, he does not paint a rosy picture in his talks. He is interested in providing his audience with validated insights and discussing the opportunities and risks that social and technological changes will bring for companies' business models and innovation needs. Jan Berger is the author and co-author of numerous future studies, trend analyses and books. He is a sought-after sparring partner for corporate executives.
