

Foresight Professional, Founder, Mentor

Jan Berger

Jan Berger is Founder and CEO of the Think Tank Themis Foresight. It was his desire to give corporate leaders the ability to secure their business for a long time through an understanding of possible futures and design options that motivated him to found his own business in corporate foresight. Before that Jan was CEO of the Leipzig-based futurist institute 2b AHEAD. His professional career has taken him through publishing, real estate and the fintech industry. Today he is author and co-author of numerous futures studies and trend analyses and a sought-after sparring partner for corporate executives. Jan Berger Speaking...
