

Pilot & World record holder, Activist

Zara Rutherford

Zara Rutherford is a world-record setting pilot and activist committed to women’s empowerment and equality. In 2022, Zara Rutherford circumnavigated the globe in a small aircraft and became the youngest woman to fly solo around the world. Her journey lasted 4 months and 26 days. Zara Rutherford was born into a family of aviators and was lucky to have great role models in her parents and grandparents. She wants to build on this heritage and with her flight Zara aims to encourage young women to pursue their dreams and reduce the gender gap in aviation as well as in science,…
