

International Ice Hockey Referee, Lecturer & Entrepreneur

Andreas Koch

Andreas Koch, aka "die Pfeife" has been an ice hockey referee since 1994. He refereed the Swiss league finals in 2013 and 2018, was DEL referee from 2019 – 2021 and has refereed over 2500 games worldwide with his International License. In addition to his career as a referee, he studied law and holds an MAS in applied business psychology. He built up his own legal consultancy for SMEs, but left this profession again to devote himself to other things. Because there is one thing he has always been: versatile. Andreas Koch enjoys exploring new things and finding solutions to...
