Bianca-Maria Klein

Bianca-Maria Klein: "I love change and people are my home!" Bianca-Maria Klein was born into the medical world: her father, a well-known cardiologist, took her on international trips and conventions as a child. For Bianca-Maria, it was obvious that she would shape her career in the medical field. Thanks to her Italian mother, she grew up bilingual, speaking fluent German, Italian, English, French and Spanish. Her 20-year international career with corporations such as Boston Scientific, among others, as a sales, research & marketing executive, has taken her to the USA, Belgium, Italy & Switzerland and has significantly shaped her in...
