Rudi Cerne

Rudi Cerne was born in Herne in 1958 and studied sports and biology after graduating from high school. In the 1980s he was one of the most successful figure skaters in the world. The multiple German champion crowned his career in 1984 by winning the silver medal at the European Championships in Budapest. After finishing 4th at the Olympic Games in Sarajevo and 5th at the World Championships in Ottawa, an engagement with "Holiday on Ice" followed. For the managers of the world's biggest ice revue, Rudi Cerne was the drawing card throughout Europe from 1984-88. In addition, his likeable...
