

Ex-FIFA Referee, Football Expert, Executive & Golfer

Thorsten Kinhöfer

Thorsten Kinhöfer passed his refereeing exams at the age of 16. However, the native of Herne played football himself until the age of 18 and refereed youth matches at the same time. At the age of 18, he decided against his own football career and to become a referee. Via the district league, district league, state league, Westphalia league and premier league, the trained industrial clerk made it onto the DFB list as a linesman in the 1st Bundesliga in 1994. In 1997, Kinhöfer officiated his first 2nd division match and, after a trial match in the Bundesliga, was promoted...
