

Presenter and editor of "Einstein", the knowledge magazine programme on SRF

Tobias Müller

Tobias Müller is the knowledge mediator at Swiss Radio and Television SRF. Since 2011, he has presented the weekly magazine programme "Einstein", which explores everyday phenomena and secrets and sheds light on Switzerland as a centre of research. One of his specialisms is digital transformation, which is why he has already hosted several special SRF programmes on this topic. These include the live programmes "SRF Digital Day" and "SRF Man-Machine". In 2015, Tobias Müller was honoured with the Radio and Television Prize of Eastern Switzerland for his journalistic work. Due to the thematic diversity of "Einstein", he is used to...
