

TV journalist and commentator, football expert

Claudia Neumann

She has been the female voice of football for more than 30 years. Claudia Neumann is a journalist and commentator with passion and competence. Football was born in her cradle. Growing up as a "classic 9" on the football pitches with the boys – socialized in football with the '74 world champion team. While studying German and sports she entered the TV business in the early 1990s with private television, which was innovative at that time. Claudia Neumann quickly established herself as a recognized football reporter and commentator on "ran", the legendary SAT.1 football show. After moving to ZDF at...
