

Trauma Surgery, Digitalization, Leadership

Dr. Johanna Ludwig

Johanna Ludwig is a trauma surgeon, entrepreneur, and bridge-builder between clinical care and digital innovation. Strengthening the healthcare system from within, making processes more human, and providing patients with excellent care—these are her daily motivations. But not just in the operating room. What do you picture in your mind's eye when you think of a specialist in trauma surgery? Probably a sterile surgical field, flashing blue lights, or managing acute cases in the emergency room. Dr. Johanna Ludwig lives this very clinical reality, yet she refuses to turn a blind eye to the systemic shortcomings of the healthcare system. Johanna…
