

Olympic champion, World champion & overall World Cup winner in alpine skiing

Maria Höfl-Riesch

Maria Höfl-Riesch was already on skis at the age of three. During her active career, she won several Olympic medals and world championship titles, making her one of the most successful female ski racers of all time. She was able to transfer the strengths and skills she acquired in top-class sport into management life. Today she is a speaker, podcaster, co-founder and consultant for a content & celebrity management company. She has been an investor in the women's football team FC Viktoria 1889 Berlin since 2022. Social commitment is very important to her. Maria Höfl-Riesch supports the Laureus Sport for Good Foundation...
